Calendar Description:

As well as examining the formulation of business plans, this course examines the function of management concerned with organization, staffing, directing, and controlling. Objectives for effective management, such as profit, service, personnel and operation, are examined. Case analysis is used to integrate course material.

Prerequisite(s)/co-requisite(s):

none

Required Text/Resource Materials:

Good, W., Mayhew, W. (2017) Building Your Dream: A Canadian Guide to Starting Your Own Business. Tenth Edition. McGraw-Hill Ryerson.

You will need to have an ACCESS CODE for CONNECT in order to have access to the online practice exercises and quizzes. The code comes with a new textbook, or if you buy a used textbook, you can purchase the access code separately.

Students will also be required to obtain a tri-fold presentation board for the business plan trade show.

Delivery Mode(s):

This is a 3 credit course with 3 hours of lecture per week. The course work includes lectures, guest presentations, class discussions, group work, and student presentations. You should study assigned readings before class and be prepared to discuss the material and apply your understanding in the classroom.

Course Objectives:

This course provides the foundation for each participant to research and prepare a feasible business plan for a new, non-existent firm of the student's choice (Subject to approval).

The goal of the course is to give students an understanding of the long-range planning process for a business, both at the start-up and after the business is established. At the same time, students will be given the opportunity to develop their skills in creative thinking, achieving aggressive targets, and applying business and personal ethics.

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the course, the student will be able to do the following:

1. Research and prepare a feasible business plan.
2. Identify sources of data and assistance for preparing a business plan.
3. Assess the relevance of market data for the plan.
4. Discuss related current issues in entrepreneurship and business management.
5. Present and argue a case for the feasibility of the plan.

Transferability:

MacEwan University: BUSN 1xx (3)

Concordia University of Edmonton: BUS 1xx (3)

Warning: Although we strive to make the transferability information in this document up-to-date and accurate, the student has the final responsibility for ensuring the transferability of this course to Alberta Colleges and Universities. Please consult the Alberta Transfer Guide for more information.
