COURSE OUTLINE – Fall 2022

EN1230(A2): Literature in Global Perspective – 3 (3-0-0) 45 Hours for 15 Weeks

Northwestern Polytechnic acknowledges that our campuses are located on Treaty 8 territory, the ancestral and present-day home to many diverse First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people. We are grateful to work, live and learn on the traditional territory of Duncan's First Nation, Horse Lake First Nation and Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, who are the original caretakers of this land.

We acknowledge the history of this land and we are thankful for the opportunity to walk together in friendship, where we will encourage and promote positive change for present and future generations.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: This course involves studies in literatures in English from around the world. Instruction will include essay writing skills.

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: none

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

Achebe, Chinua – Things Fall Apart
Kadare, Ismail – The Ghost Rider
Danticat, Edwidge – The Dew Breaker

Other class readings will be posted to MyClass (D2L); it is your responsibility to ensure that you are able to access and read these documents well in advance of the class in which they will be discussed.

DELIVERY MODE(S): The course work includes lecture, class discussion, in-class quizzes, and written assignments.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: This course offers a survey of twentieth- and twenty-first century writings from around the world. Its aim is not to discuss contemporary global literatures in their totality; instead, this course is designed to allow us to perceive the richness and variety of international writing. At the same time, we will learn how literature makes connections across geographical, cultural, and historical distances.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: After taking this course, the successfully participating students will demonstrate the following:

- The ability to use a critical vocabulary suited to the discussion of literary texts
- The ability to associate authors and texts with relevant literary moments, periods, and geographic regions
- Skills crucial to effective university-level essay composition, from planning, to writing, to revision
- The ability to perform secondary research as well as the ability to use research effectively and responsibly in writing assignments

TRANSFERABILITY:

Please consult the Alberta Transfer Guide for more information. You may check to ensure the transferability of this course at the Alberta Transfer Guide main page <http://www.transferalberta.ca>.

* Grade of D or D+ may not be acceptable for transfer to other post-secondary institutions. Students are cautioned that it is their responsibility to contact the receiving institutions to ensure transferability

- Weeks 6-10: Mid-century writing: history, memory, postcolonialism
- Weeks 11-15: The late 20th century and beyond: postmodernism, diaspora, globalization

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Unless otherwise indicated, all written work be uploaded to MyClass (D2L) AND submitted as a hard copy. Students must accept the Turnitin agreement to submit written work.
2. Written assignments are to be submitted on time. Late assignments will incur a penalty of 5% per day, with weekends counting as two.
3. Extensions will not be granted for written assignments except in extenuating circumstances. Documentation will be required.
4. My expectation is that students who are healthy will attend all classes. Students who are ill or need to be absent for other legitimate reasons should contact and inform me. Excused absences will have no impact on a student's grade; however, unexcused absences will negatively affect the participation component of a student's grade and could result in a failing grade for that component of a student's final mark.
5. Students are required to check MyClass before each class to stay informed concerning the schedule of readings as well as course updates and announcements.
6. Students do not need to make appointments to meet with me during my office hours. Anyone who wants to meet with me outside of my scheduled hours may contact me to arrange an alternate meeting time. Students wishing to meet via Zoom rather than in my office may request a virtual appointment. Please note that I will not meet with you outside of regular working hours.
7. Cellphones should be out of sight during class time. Students who are repeatedly on their cellphones during class will receive failing grades for participation.

8. The date for the midterm can be found on the more detailed schedule of readings and assignments available on the myClass page for this course. The midterm will not be rescheduled except in extenuating circumstances. Documentation will be required for any student wishing to write the midterm on an alternate date.

9. Students should feel free to email me with questions or concerns at any point during the semester. I will do my best to respond to your emails as quickly as possible, but emails sent outside of regular working hours will not receive immediate replies.

10. The final exam for this class will be scheduled by the registrar and will take place in December. The exam will not be rescheduled except in extenuating circumstances. Documentation will be required for any student wishing to write the final exam on an alternate date.
