

DEPARTMENT OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

COURSE OUTLINE - FALL 2022

FR2110 (A2): Intermediate French I – 3 (3-0-2) 75 Hours for 15 Weeks

Northwestern Polytechnic acknowledges that our campuses are located on Treaty 8 territory, the ancestral and present-day home to many diverse First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people. We are grateful to work, live and learn on the traditional territory of Duncan's First Nation, Horse Lake First Nation and Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, who are the original caretakers of this land.

We acknowledge the history of this land and we are thankful for the opportunity to walk together in friendship, where we will encourage and promote positive change for present and future generations.

INSTRUCTOR: Raoudha Kallel, PhD

PHONE: 780-539-2049

OFFICE: C-425

E-MAIL: rkallel@nwpolytech.ca

OFFICE HOURS: Monday & Wednesday: 1-2:30pm

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

This first-year university course combines spoken and written French, and includes listening, comprehension, pronunciation, grammar, composition, and literature.

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: French 30 or equivalent

REQUIRED TEXTS:

1. Champeny, Séverine, Imaginez: le français sans frontières, 4th edition, cours de français intermédiaire, Vista Higher Learning, 2020 (Leçons 1-5 will be covered and the same book is used in FR2120). The textbook is accompanied by a Supersite code which will give you access to the online activities and resources at www.vblcentral.com.
2. Recommended: a good French/English dictionary or online dictionary: WordReference.com
3. Supplementary materials will be used for extra practice.

DELIVERY MODE(S):

The delivery of this course is based on Leçons 1-5 of Imaginez. The textbook presents practical vocabulary related to the lesson theme, authentic short films by award-winning francophone filmmakers, cultural readings and video clips of the francophone world, structures and Fiches de grammaire, and authentic literary selections by writers from diverse francophone countries. Most of our in-class time will focus on this material. Beside the textbook, the Imaginez Supersite provides you with many additional activities and a complete Lab Program. In addition, the 'Supersite Plus' offers you the WebSAM: the online Student Activities Manual is to be completed for the most part on your own and will give you supplemental practice using language elements introduced from the textbook in class.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The aim of this course is to enable students to communicate in oral and written French in most informal and some formal situations on topics of personal and general interest with suitable accuracy and confidence. Students will review and expand their grammatical and lexical knowledge in a Francophone cultural context.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

After successfully completing this course, the students will be able to:

- master a wide range of practical vocabulary related to the lesson themes of the textbook;
- communicate comfortably and with confidence in most formal and informal real-life situations;
- read and understand short literary and cultural readings (literary extracts, poems, cultural texts);
- write compositions using various grammatical structures (affirmative, negative, interrogative, and imperative forms), and tenses (présent, passé composé, imparfait, and plus-que-parfait);
- understand listening exercises, short-subject dramatic films and authentic video clips from the francophone world;
- speak, engage in conversation, and interact with others using different grammatical structures, a wide range of vocabulary, and present and past tenses;
- appreciate and celebrate the French culture in a diverse French-speaking world (la francophonie aux États-Unis, le Québec, la France, les Antilles et l’Afrique de l’Ouest);
- virtually meet famous francophone people such as painters, writers, poets, filmmakers, singers, musicians, designers, and photographers)
- use the computer and complete the online WebSAM activities.

TRANSFERABILITY:

Please consult the Alberta Transfer Guide for more information. You may check to ensure the transferability of this course at the Alberta Transfer Guide main page <http://www.transferalberta.ca>.

 Grade of D or D+ may not be acceptable for transfer to other post-secondary institutions. Students are cautioned that it is their responsibility to contact the receiving institutions to ensure transferability.

EVALUATIONS:

Regular self and instructor-administered evaluation is the key to progress. Testing is varied. Missed exams may only be made up upon presentation of a doctor’s note.

Chapter Tests (4 x 6%)	24%
Compositions / Rédactions (4 x 4%)	16%
Workbook online / Cahier d’exercices (5 x 4%)	20%
Attendance and participation	10%
Final Exam:	30%
• Oral production:	10%
• Written + oral comprehension (listening):	20%
	Total: 100%

1. Chapter Tests – There are 4 chapter tests. Upon completion of each test, students will gain feedback on their progress through a written chapter test. Chapter tests cannot be made up, but with an official doctor’s note, may be excused.

2. Compositions / Rédactions – There are 4 compositions. The topics will be posted online and should be enriched with vocabulary and grammar learned within each “Leçon.” Keep a copy of all written work. In the event of loss or theft, the student will be required to submit a duplicate copy.

3. Workbook online / Cahier d’exercices – Language acquisition depends on contact with and repeated use of concepts taught in class. The Workbook Manual is accessible online and is to be completed and submitted for grading online outside of class time. The online Supersite Plus (WebSAM) provides many additional activities to support you with many possible opportunities to hear, speak, and read French. Workbooks are graded online.

4. Attendance and participation – Your attendance, punctuality, participation, and contribution to creating a positive interactive learning environment will affect your learning and contribute to your grades. Participation and attendance are worth 10%. Students earn 10% through regular attendance, class participation, and contribution to a positive interactive learning environment.

5. Final Exam (oral production & written and oral comprehension) – A final comprehensive written exam consisting of written, listening (oral comprehension) parts will be scheduled by the Registrar. The Oral production exam will take place during the last week of classes.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Attendance and participation are vital as new language structures are introduced in every class. Your personal contribution in making the French class a positive learning experience for everyone is essential. In case of an unavoidable absence, please notify the instructor. Students are responsible to cover all work missed.

2. Practice – Language acquisition depends on contact with and use of the language. Avail yourself of every possible opportunity to hear, speak, and read French (TV, radio, magazines, French songs, etc.). You are encouraged to find someone with whom you may practice and study. Helpful sites are:
 - Conjugaison: <http://leconjugueur.lefigaro.fr/> ou <http://la-conjugaison.nouvelobs.com/>
 - Dictionnaires : <http://www.larousse.com/en/dictionaries/french-english>, <http://www.wordreference.com/>
 - Office québécois de la langue française. Grand dictionnaire terminologique <http://gdt.oqlf.gouv.qc.ca/>
 - Grammaire et Orthographe : Le Bon Patron- Aide à la rédaction: site web : www.bonpatron.com

3. Respect – Out of courtesy and respect to all class members, it is necessary that students only access cell phones outside of class time.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and there will be penalties. For a more precise definition of plagiarism and its consequences, refer to the Student Conduct section of the Northwestern Polytechnic Calendar at <https://www.nwpolytech.ca/programs/calendar/> or the Student Rights and Responsibilities policy which can be found at <https://www.nwpolytech.ca/about/administration/policies/index.html>.
