The readings on the outline are to be read in preparation for the class date by which they are listed. Use the exercises within each reading as practice; check your work with the answers in the back of the text, and if you need more practice, do more. This procedure will help you succeed on each day's quiz. Don't let the idea of a quiz scare you. There will be a review of the material, as well as time for questions from the homework, before each quiz. After this portion of class time, there will be a variety of interactive activities, including writing assignments, role play, and discussions. Late assignments will be penalized and missed quizzes will not be made up, except in the event of illness or an emergency absence. Always talk to me if you need to be absent, or if your circumstances cause you to fall behind in class. It is the responsibility of the student to keep up with all assigned work, either reading or writing. Being prepared for class is expected, even after an absence. For backup, look around the room, select one or two reliable looking people, and exchange phone numbers.
