REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

Duplessis, Enman, O'Byrne and King, Canadian Business and the Law, 6th Edition, 2017, Nelson Education Ltd.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

A synoptic view of the Canadian legal system, with emphasis on underlying considerations of social policy. While considering the nature, sources, philosophy, and policy objectives of the law, selected topics from the fields of tort and contract will be analyzed.

CREDIT/CONTACT HOURS:

This is a 3 credit course, consisting of 3 lecture hours per week.

If you need to contact the course instructors, please do so by emailing them at the addresses provided above or by phoning them at (780) 532-7771 during business hours.

DELIVERY MODE(S):

Using the course textbook and the GPRC Moodle learning site students read, take quizzes in addition to a midterm and a final exam.

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

In this course, we will cover the basic principles of business law in Canada. This course is delivered from the perspective that the law plays an integral part in business decision making. It offers ideas, resources and tools for protecting business assets, resolving legal conflicts, and complying with the law. Some of the main areas touched upon include: the Canadian legal system, contract law, forms of business organization, property law and torts.

COURSE OUTCOME:

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- recognize, interpret, and evaluate the fundamental legal concepts, legislation, and legal issues important to Canadian business, to better manage risk;
- Analyze and apply legal concepts to specific legal business problems and suggest appropriate legal remedies;
- Assess real-life legal problems in order to formulate creative solutions:
- Value law as a "real life" practical subject, not as a matter of theory or history.

CLASS PARTICIPATION:

Students are strongly encouraged to review the assigned chapter readings with study questions and scenarios to follow prior to each class. Students should be prepared to discuss the assigned material and contribute to class discussions each week. Ten percent (10%) of student's overall grade will be based on their class participation and attendance, at the instructor's discretion.

EXAMINATIONS:

You will be tested on your understanding of and ability to apply the concepts presented in class and in the readings. Textbook materials, class discussions, videos or any materials distributed in handouts may all be used for the quizzes or exams. The final exam WILL cover material from the start of the course. More detail on the exams will be provided as the term progresses.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and there will be penalties. For a more precise definition of plagiarism and its consequences, refer to the Student Conduct section of the College Admission Guide at http://www.gprc.ab.ca/programs/calendar/ or the College Policy on Student Misconduct: Plagiarism and Cheating at www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies/.
