CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

A theoretical and practical course on techniques in fitness leadership for individuals and groups.

PREREQUISITE(S): PF1980 and PF 2900.

NOTE: PF 1910 is for Personal Trainer Diploma students only.

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

NSCA's Essentials of Personal Training, 2nd Edition

Coburn, J.W., and Malek M,H. (2012). . Champaign, IL, Human Kinetics.

DELIVERY MODE(S): The course work includes roundtable discussions, lectures and practicum hours in the community.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- 1. To provide practical experience in the fitness leadership industry including: employment interviews, program planning/design and instruction in professional settings for a minimum of 52 hours. The 52 hours will include working within fitness facilities/agencies; shadowing and interviewing PTs, interviewing PT clients; required observation of and participation in exercise classes; and conducting exercise consultations. All experiences must be recorded and included in the student's logbook.
- 2. To provide theoretical knowledge in the areas of basic fitness theory and fitness leadership. Students will be involved in seminars related to personal training issues.

- 3. To develop exercise and stretching resources that will be included in future consultation packages.
- 4. To expose students to situations that will develop invaluable networks within the fitness and medical communities for referrals.
- 5. To create the experience of mentoring first year Personal Training Students, allowing students to provide guidance and assistance throughout the term in areas of fitness knowledge. (Able to use 3-5 practicum hours toward this).

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- 1. The student will understand at least one or two niche markets in the fitness industry, and gain practical experience working with each.
- 2. The student will learn to network with industry leaders, facility managers, local personal trainers and medical professionals.
- 3. The student will compare a variety of exercise classes and be able to evaluate each based upon class content; exercise technique; and the teaching effectiveness of different instructors.
- 4. Students will become familiar with a variety of exercises and stretches and are able to accommodate a client's individual needs.
- 5. The student will develop the necessary resources and skills to conduct thorough exercise consultations.

TRANSFERABILITY:

Not officially transferable to other institutions at this time.
