STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Exams may consist of a combination of multiple choice questions, true/false, glossary terms/concepts to define, and maybe short answer questions based on all lecture and text materials.

PLEASE NOTE:

☛ Missed exams (70 points of your course grade) unfortunately cannot be accommodated unless the situation is an unexpected personal or family emergency. No make-up exams unless it's an emergency. Also, no make-up for the Pop Quiz.

🗨 What the semester course projects entails (90 points of your course grade) will be discussed in detail as classes get underway and as the course progresses:

You will be provided with instructions and relevant information with plenty of lead time in regards to the Vanier Institute Report presentations, the projects (analysis of dating sites like eHarmony)/social network sites (like Facebook); how to do a proper Family Genogram, or Family Developmental History), film analysis, etc.

♥ For most of the course work (except exams), students may choose to work with a partner (both students will share the mark for their work), or you may work individually. However, (a) the daily Vanier Institute presentations will be done by a group of 2 students, as well as (b) the Film Analysis (last assignment)!

Please note that plagiarism detection software may be used in this course, and students may be required, individually or collectively, to submit key assignments/components in electronic form.

It is your responsibility to ensure that all your work is at a level appropriate to your year in college/university studies. Always spell and grammar check your work; always keep a hard copy or disk copy of your work as backup. There is writing help on campus, and if in doubt you are always welcome to ask me, your instructor, for clarification. Poor spelling, grammar and organization always interferes with the clear communication of ideas and you will lose marks if your overall communication is ineffective.

Attendance at lectures is strongly encouraged; the same applies to your participation in class discussions. Be an active participant in your education!

Late assignments (or any assignment/course components) will result in an automatic loss of 5 marks (of the value of the work) PER DAY, up to and including the day of a late submission, unless immediate or prior arrangements, based on exceptional circumstances, have been made. Documented personal or family emergencies, of course, will be accommodated.
