

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND OFFICE ADMINISTRATION

COURSE OUTLINE – Fall 2025

MG2000 (EC): Principles of Business – 3 (3-0-0) 45 Hours for 15 Weeks

Northwestern Polytechnic acknowledges that our campuses are located on Treaty 8 territory, the ancestral and present-day home to many diverse First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people. We are grateful to work, live and learn on the traditional territory of Duncan's First Nation, Horse Lake First Nation and Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, who are the original caretakers of this land.

We acknowledge the history of this land and we are thankful for the opportunity to walk together in friendship, where we will encourage and promote positive change for present and future generations.

Total	100%

ASSIGNMENT AND PROJECT POLICIES:

- You are strongly encouraged to complete all exercises, assignments, quizzes, and exams.
- You must contact the instructor to make arrangements if you anticipate missing an evaluation BEFORE the evaluation date. Valid reasons include conflict with religious beliefs, domestic problems, bereavement, or illness. In the case of illness (physical, mental, or emotional), medical documentation may be required.
- Late assignments will have a 10% reduction per day, with no acceptance after 9 days late.
- Turnitin plagiarism-detecting software will be used in this course.

Video Reflections:

- Students are expected to have clear audio and video for their video reflections. These videos will be taken by the students and uploaded to MyClass.
- There is a time limit of 3 minutes for each video reflection.

Term Test

- The term test will be closed book, taken online
- It must be written using Proctoring software, ProctorU
- The term test will have one attempt

- It will be important to complete the test within this time frame, or it will result in a grade of zero. Re-writes or extra work will not be granted for missed tests or unsuccessful attempts.

Quizzes

- There will be 6 quizzes dispersed throughout the semester administered through MyClass.
- The lowest grade of all the quizzes will be dropped.
- All quizzes must be completed before the due date expires or the student will receive a mark of zero (0) for any missed quizzes.
- You will be given 1 attempt at each quiz.
- Once the quiz has been started, you must complete the entire quiz within the set time limit.
- Logging off or losing the internet connection during the quiz will result in a grade based only on the proportion of the exam that has been completed. It is important to have a reliable internet connection when attempting an exam.

Case Study & Presentation

- Attendance will be taken for case days (as outlined in the schedule).
- This will be a group paper and presentation. Students are expected to create a group charter, participate equally, and will be required to evaluate their peers.
- The case study will be a combination of a presentation and a written APA style paper.

USING PROCTORU:

This course uses ProctorU Live for online exams. To utilize this service, you are required to complete the following steps:

- Create a ProctorU account by clicking the ProctorU link in the course.
- Download and install the Guardian Web Browser, Google Chrome, and the ProctorU extension.
- Schedule each exam at least 3 days (72 hours) in advance. If you miss this deadline, you cannot take the exam.
- Pay for the proctoring service. The fees are exclusively your responsibility and in no event shall be the responsibility of Northwestern Polytechnic.

For more detailed instructions click here, and for video instructions click here.

Before each exam, you must complete a room scan with your web camera, during which you will show your surroundings to a live proctor.

The invigilator will ask to view (but not collect or store) your student identification to verify your identity and will remotely access your computer to unlock the exam. When monitoring your actions via video streaming, the invigilator may possibly record your actions if they suspect academic integrity behavioural issues. You will be verbally notified if/when recording begins.

The collection of and access to the personal information listed above is permitted under subsection 33(c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, RSA 2000, c F-25, which states, "No personal information may be collected by or for a public body unless that information relates directly to and is necessary for an operating program or activity of the public body." In addition, subsection 39(4) states, "A public body may use personal information only to the extent necessary to enable the public body to carry out its purpose in a reasonable manner."

Records Retention: Any video records of you created by ProctorU will be kept by ProctorU for a maximum of 7 days in order to make a decision about any possible academic integrity infraction, after which time it shall be permanently deleted. All other personal information collected and stored by ProctorU within your profile account will be permanently deleted if the account has not been used after one year.

Consent to Store Personal Information Outside Canada

ProctorU is an American company. An agreement is in place between ProctorU and Northwestern Polytechnic by which ProctorU will take reasonable steps to protect your personal information from unauthorized access and disclosure. Information about how ProctorU protects your privacy can be found in their Privacy Policy.

By using the ProctorU service via Northwestern Polytechnic, you consent to the storage of and access to your personal information outside of Canada.

This consent is in effect from the day you register with ProctorU and expires one year after completion of your exam.

Additional privacy and liability information regarding the use of ProctorU is available on the NWP website.
