

DEPARTMENT Business & Office Administration
COURSE OUTLINE – Spring 2026
LR3010 (EC): Legal Relations – 3 (5.5-0-0) UT 45 Hours for 8 Weeks

Northwestern Polytechnic acknowledges that our campuses are located on Treaty 8 territory, the ancestral and present-day home to many diverse First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people. We are grateful to work, live and learn on the traditional territory of Duncan's First Nation, Horse Lake First Nation, and Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, who are the original caretakers of this land.

We acknowledge the history of this land, and we are thankful for the opportunity to walk together in friendship, where we will encourage and promote positive change for present and future generations.

60 minutes or less - $16 USD

61 - 120 minutes - $25 USD

121 - 180 minutes - $31 USD

Device and Network Requirements:

A device must meet or exceed the following specifications, including the following software apps and internet capacity to participate in online course content. For device, software, and network requirements, please visit the following link: <https://www.nwpolytech.ca/doc.php?d=TECHREQ>

DELIVERY MODE: Asynchronous

This is a paced online self-study course. You will work through the course content in the order presented, completing all textbook readings, chapter exercises, quizzes, and assignments before progressing to the next week. Please adhere to the tentative weekly schedule.

The course is delivered entirely online using NWP MyClass software and Connect. The exercises, assignments, and quizzes have specific due dates to keep you on track, so you will finish the 15-week course on time.

It is highly recommended that you take advantage of all the material on the MyClass course and Connect website. Access to Connect comes with the purchase of your textbook. Important information, announcements, and grades are posted on the NWP MyClass course site. Grades for exercises, assignments, and tests are also posted to the NWP MyClass gradebook. Please check your MyNWP account for your final letter grade after the completion of the course.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- recognize, interpret, and evaluate the fundamental legal concepts, legislation, and legal issues important to Canadian business, to better manage risk;
- Analyze and apply legal concepts to specific legal business problems and suggest appropriate legal remedies;
- Assess real-life legal problems in order to formulate creative solutions;
- Value law as a “real life” practical subject, not as a matter of theory or history.

TRANSFERABILITY:

Please consult the Alberta Transfer Guide for more information. You may check to ensure the transferability of this course at the Alberta Transfer Guide main page <http://www.transferalberta.alberta.ca>.

* Grade of D or D+ may not be acceptable for transfer to other post-secondary institutions. Students are cautioned that it is their responsibility to contact the receiving institutions to ensure transferability

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Registered students are expected to abide by the rules and regulations of NWP. It is the student's responsibility to be fully acquainted with and adhere to NWP's policies, procedures or rules; see <https://www.nwpolytech.ca/about/administration/policies/> and <https://www.nwpolytech.ca/about/administration/policies/fetch.php?ID=69>

STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT:

Academic Misconduct will not be tolerated. For a more precise definition of academic misconduct and its consequences, refer to the Student Rights and Responsibilities policy available at <https://www.nwpolytech.ca/about/administration/policies/index.html>.

*Note: all Academic and Administrative policies are available on the same page.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Participation

Students are expected to complete all graded assessments. Students may be refused permission to write the final examination on advice of the instructor. This happens when students have completed less than 70% of the required graded assessments by the course add/drop date; see Examination Policy and Debarred from Examinations; <https://www.nwpolytech.ca/about/administration/policies/fetch.php?ID=37>. Students who cannot mathematically pass the course by the add/drop date (cannot reach a course composite grade of 50% even with 100% success on the final exam), will be refused permission to write the final examination.

Time Management

Adopting and adhering to effective learning habits in this course will likely take up a great deal of time so plan your schedule accordingly. See Course Schedule/Tentative Timeline section above.

Course materials and announcements will be available on myClass, Connect, and NWP Webmail. Students are responsible for checking all three websites regularly.

Email

Students may contact the instructor by NWP Webmail. Webmail will be answered within two business days outside of stated office hours. Webmail correspondence must be sent to your instructor from your NWP Webmail account. Webmail should be professionally formatted with correct spelling and grammar. Webmail must include a subject line and reference to the course code and material(s) and/or textbook pages, etc.

Copyright

NWP respects Canadian and International laws and agreements with respect to the use of copyright materials. It is the responsibility of the individual using copyrighted materials to ensure said use is compliant with Canadian law, the Use of Copyright Materials Policy, and the Copyright Practices Guide for NWP instructors and Staff. USING PROCTORU:

This course uses ProctorU Live for online exams. To utilize this service, you are required to complete the following steps:

- Create a ProctorU account by clicking the ProctorU link in the course.
- Download and install the Guardian Web Browser, Google Chrome, and the ProctorU extension.
- Schedule each exam at least 3 days (72 hours) in advance. If you miss this deadline, you cannot take the exam.
- Pay for the proctoring service. The fees are exclusively your responsibility and in no event shall be the responsibility of Northwestern Polytechnic.

For more detailed instructions click here, and for video instructions click here.

Before each exam, you must complete a room scan with your web camera, during which you will show your surroundings to a live proctor.

The invigilator will ask to view (but not collect or store) your student identification to verify your identity and will remotely access your computer to unlock the exam. When monitoring your actions via video streaming, the invigilator may possibly record your actions if they suspect academic integrity behavioural issues. You will be verbally notified if/when recording begins.

The collection of and access to the personal information listed above is permitted under subsection 33(c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, RSA 2000, c F-25, which states, “No personal information may be collected by or for a public body unless that information relates directly to and is necessary for an operating program or activity of the public body.” In addition, subsection 39(4) states, “A public body may use personal information only to the extent necessary to enable the public body to carry out its purpose in a reasonable manner.”

Records Retention: Any video records of you created by ProctorU will be kept by ProctorU for a maximum of 7 days in order to make a decision about any possible academic integrity infraction, after which time it shall be permanently deleted. All other personal information collected and stored by ProctorU within your profile account will be permanently deleted if the account has not been used after one year.

Consent to Store Personal Information Outside Canada

ProctorU is an American company. An agreement is in place between ProctorU and Northwestern Polytechnic by which ProctorU will take reasonable steps to protect your personal information from unauthorized access and disclosure. Information about how ProctorU protects your privacy can be found in their Privacy Policy.

By using the ProctorU service via Northwestern Polytechnic, you consent to the storage of and access to your personal information outside of Canada.

This consent is in effect from the day you register with ProctorU and expires one year after completion of your exam.

Additional privacy and liability information regarding the use of ProctorU is available on the NWP website.
