- Who: Ian Forbes, Office Studio A.
Phone: 539 -2835
- Where: Studio b
- When: Friday
8:30 - 14:20
- What: Sculpture 1 is an introductory-level studio course that will introduce the basic concepts of sculpture and perception. Various approaches and conceptual attitudes will be examined to broaden the student's appreciation of sculpture and visual culture.

OBJECTIVES

Students upon completion of this course will:

1. Exhibit a working knowledge of the fundamentals of sculpture including:
  - The various characteristics of sculptural media.
  - The preparation of a variety of sculptural media (like clay, plaster, cement, wood, found material and other media)
  - Various ways of sculpting, advantages and disadvantages, both traditional and experimental.
2. Identify and apply fundamental principles of composition as related to three dimensions (harmony, balance, rhythm, repetition, dominance, variety) using the elements of visual art (line, shape, value, texture and colour.)
4. Perceive visual relationships in the environment and record these perceptions as sculptures.
5. Develop confidence and competence in the verbal discussion of these topics.
6. Develop an awareness of visual culture as related to three dimensions.

READING AND/OR HOME ASSIGNMENTS:

- Students can expect to put in a minimum of SIX TO TWELVE (6 -12) HOURS PER WEEK on out-of-class work.
- Assignments are expected on the date required. Failure to complete projects on time for class critiques will effect the student's final evaluation.

ABSENTEEISM

- More than 20% absenteeism from class will result in the student being asked to leave the class. Further, if students fail to complete and submit 85% of grade requirements of the term mark they will not be allowed to complete the course. In such a case, the student will automatically receive a failing grade of DB
