

GRANDE PRAIRIE REGIONAL COLLEGE
ADULT DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

COURSE INFORMATION

1989-90

---

COURSE OUTLINE:           APPLE LOGO I    BC066

INSTRUCTOR:           William T. Shaw
                                Office:     A 108
                                Telephone: 539-2027, ext. 36

DATE:                   September - October

TIME:                   Tuesday and Thursday
                                9:00 a.m. - 9:50 a.m.

                                or Friday
                                12:30 a.m. - 2:25 p.m.

ROOM:                   A 103

TEXTBOOK:            LOGO for the Apple II/IIe/IIc;
                                Britannica Learning Materials; Toronto,
                                Ontario

COURSE DESCRIPTION:   This course will introduce basic computer programming, using a graphic application program, (Apple Logo). The student will experience continuous computer usage throughout this course.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- To introduce students to the basic operations of the computer
- To provide the learner the groundwork to basic programming principles through the use of Apple Logo, a software graphics application program.

EVALUATION:

Participation and Punctuality . . . . .	20%
Completion of Assignments . . . . .	50%
Final Exam . . . . .	30%
<hr/>
Total possible mark in this course	100%

NOTE: Student must have a final mark of 60% or better to receive credit in this course.