

F. 94 95

GRANDE PRAIRIE REGIONAL COLLEGE
OFFICE ADMINISTRATION
COURSE OUTLINE

D Kinderwater

CA2050 - COMPUTER COMMUNICATIONS

TEXT: NONE

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The evolution and concepts of computer networks, types and configurations of networks, advantages and disadvantages of networks, planning and administration of networks. Hands-on experience managing a network. Modems, remote access and data importing and exporting will also be covered.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: The student will develop the skills necessary to plan and manage a small network.

GRADING: Two exams, 50% each.

SCHEDULE: This one-credit module is scheduled to every day for approximately 25 days.