CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: A practical course which explores children's art, literature and music from a child-centered perspective.

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: None

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

Englebright, J. & R. Schirmacher. (2015). Art & Creative Development for Young Children 8th Ed. Stamford, USA: Cengage Learning. Additional costs may be incurred purchasing materials for experiences.

Assorted digital readings (on Moodle)

DELIVERY MODE(S): Classroom instruction will include a combination of lectures, discussions, hands on small and large group work. Audio-visual materials and other resources will also be used.

Students are encouraged to come to class daily ready for messy play, outdoor adventures and ready to engage fully in play spaces with children no matter the weather.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course intends to provide students with:

- Practical hands on exploration of art, literature and music from a child-centered perspective in order to support students' ability to create experiences for young children in those areas.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of the course learners will effectively:

- Be able to discuss the concept of creativity
- Express knowledge of the environmental conditions that affect the development of creativity in young children
- Explain how art, literature and music contribute to a child's physical and social-emotional development
- Demonstrate use of a developmentally appropriate, child-centered, play based approach to program planning for art, literature and music

"Flight: Alberta's Early Learning and Care Framework", is a leading curriculum for the early learning and child care profession. Concepts from the framework will be covered in a variety of different ways in each of our Early Learning and Childcare courses.
