

ADULT DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

COURSE OUTLINE

Course Name: INNERCHANGE II (CM067)
Instructor: La Vern Stangeland Office # - C 220
Date: March - April 1992
Time: 9:00 - 9:50 a.m. Monday and Wednesday
Room: B 309

Prerequisites: There are no academic requirements but students should be interested in self improvement.

Course Objectives:

- to give students an opportunity to learn some important things about life and living from one another.
- to give students an opportunity to gain self-confidence and social inter-relating skills.

Course Content: Students will frequently be given an opportunity to participate in activities that allow and encourage them to talk and listen to one another. Topics covered are:

- learning
- communications
- trust
- helping relationships
- friendship

Evaluation: BREAKDOWN OF STUDENT'S MARKS FOR THE ENTIRE COURSE

13 classes (13 x 2).....	26 %
2 % per class for punctuality
1 % per class if student is late
0 % if absent
12 assignments (12 x 5).....	60 %
First 6 assignments due March 25
Last 6 assignments due April 11
Participation.....	14 %
Total possible mark for this course.....	100 %

Note: Students must have a final mark of 60 % or better to receive credit in this course.