

DEPARTMENT of FINE ARTS

COURSE OUTLINE – Winter 2023

DR 1020 (A3): Play Analysis – 3 (3-0-0) 45 Hours for 15 Weeks

Northwestern Polytechnic acknowledges that our campuses are located on Treaty 8 territory, the ancestral and present-day home to many diverse First Nations, Metis, and Inuit people. We are grateful to work, live and learn on the traditional territory of Duncan's First Nation, Horse Lake First Nation and Sturgeon Lake Cree Nation, who are the original caretakers of this land.

We acknowledge the history of this land and we are thankful for the opportunity to walk together in friendship, where we will encourage and promote positive change for present and future generations.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: Through Play Analysis, students will gain understanding on how to examine theatrical narrative through history, cultural context, structure, genre, and form, as well as the playwright's point of view.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: By the end of this course students will be able to:

1. Employ a variety of play analysis tools.
2. Envision how a play works creatively in performance, based on a close reading of its text and a consideration of artistic, social, and historical contexts.
3. Examine the structure of drama, its content and meaning, and its potential life as art.
4. Analyze the playwright's point of view, as well as the artistic choices that shape a play's journey from 'page to stage'.
5. Examine the emotional, cathartic, and the "felt-experience" of the nature of drama
