Essential Reading Skills (3rd edition) by Kathleen T. McWhorter

The Diary of Anne Frank

EN0090 Building English Skills Workbook

Description: This course is for students expecting to continue into courses requiring high school level competency in English. This course provides practice in strategies, reading comprehension, vocabulary development, and basic composition skills.

Delivery Mode(s): Students will work through a series of readings, exercises and computer-assisted learning with help as required from the instructor.

Credit/Contact Hours: 5(7.5-0-0)

Objectives: This course aims to provide each student with the skills to understand and appreciate language and to use it confidently and competently for a range of purposes. Students will explore thoughts, ideas, feelings and experiences and consider diverse opinion, while acknowledging the value of the ideas and opinions of others. Students will focus on specific reading and thinking ideas using active reading strategies to help build a positive attitude toward learning.

Important Dates: March 16, 2009 is the last day for withdrawing with permission from this course. Withdrawing after this date will result in a failing grade. The last day of classes is April 14. Exams will be held April 16 -27.

Grading Criteria: This course is graded as CREDIT/NO CREDIT. A student must achieve a final passing mark of 50% on assignments/tests, complete all required course work, and maintain satisfactory attendance. Good attendance is critical for success in this course. If you miss more than 10 classes per semester in any course, you may be debarred from the final exam for that course.

Statement on Plagiarism:

The instructor reserves the right to use electronic plagiarism detection services. You are expected to be familiar with the College policy on student academic conduct addressed on pages 47-51 of the Grande Prairie College Academic Calendar 2008/2009.

Attendance: The nature of this course requires regular attendance and constructive participation. You are expected to be in attendance. Absence during an in-class assignment completed for marks will result in a mark of zero if you are absent. Assignments and tests are expected to be completed and handed in at the time specified. In order to have late assignments considered for grading, you must make prior arrangements with the instructor. If you have a legitimate excuse for not being in class during a test, please discuss the matter with the instructor. If you miss more than 10 classes per semester in any course, you may be debarred from the final exam for that course.
