ENGLISH 0120 Course Outline

INSTRUCTOR: Kay Griffiths

OFFICE: C217 Telephone: 539-2711

W 198

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

ENGLISH 0120 is designed for those requiring credit in grade eleven level English. The communication skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening are integrated into the study of literature in its various forms. Students will read and study essays, novels, drama, short stories and poems to better understand and use the English language. Students will write clear, concise and correct assignments, strengthening their skills in analysis of written material, development and organization of ideas, and effective communication.

Classes will require discussion and participation. Assignments may be given and completed within a class, and will not be accepted after that class. Late assignments will be penalized 10% per day late unless other arrangements have been made with the instructor. Regular attendance will be critical to earning a good grade in this class.
