Course Description: An introduction to world texts in English from a diversity of countries. Instruction in basic essay writing skills will also be included. We will think about and analyze literary traditions and interrogate the ways in which human experience is comparable across cultures and time periods.

University Transfer: This course will fulfil 3 credits of requirements for most programs that specify 6 credits of first year or Junior English. Normally, no more than 6 credits of first year English or equivalent may be taken for credit. Transfer: UA*, UC, UL, AU, CUC, KUC, Other (*consult Alberta Transfer Guide for more details).

Required Texts (available at the GPRC Bookstore):

- ✓ Damrosch, et al. Longman Anthology of World Literature (Compact Edition).
- ✓ Hacker, Canadian Writer's Reference 4th ed. (Bedford/St.Martin's).

Note: You may be required to retrieve readings from the Library's course reserves and from Blackboard (specific titles will be mentioned in class).

Course Format: Some lectures will be delivered but this course will focus mostly on class discussion and activities. You are expected to attend every class on time and be prepared to ask questions, to raise issues you find interesting/puzzling, and to be willing to engage with other students in a respectful, mature, and academic way. Participation will help you engage with and understand the material. Being physically present without actively taking part does not constitute "good" participation.

Term Assignments:	✓ Essay #1 (2-3 pp.): Sept. 28/29	20%
	✓ Essay #2 (4-5 pp.): Nov. 5/6	20%
	✓ Quizzes (4): see schedule for dates	20%
	✓ In-Class Workshops (3): see schedule for dates	10%
	✓ Final Research Essay (6-8 pp.): Dec. 10	30%
		100%

- Guidelines:
- ✓ All assignments will be discussed in class
  - ✓ Assignment details will also be available on Blackboard
  - ✓ Clean, white paper (double-sided, if desired)
  - ✓ Staple or paper-clip all pages (no folders/binders)
  - ✓ MLA Format only (1" margins, 12-point TNR font, etc)
  - ✓ Due in the first 30 minutes of class (NO LATE PAPERS ACCEPTED)

Conduct and Classroom Rules:

- You are adults and I expect you to behave as such. No rude behaviour will be tolerated.
- Students who are late or miss classes will find it difficult to keep up and grades will suffer.
- No make-up assignments or quizzes will be permitted for lateness or absence.
- Students are responsible for their performance in this class, NOT the instructor.
- Students who are unwilling or unable to follow these rules should seek another class.

Revisions: You can revise either/both Essay #1 and Essay #2 ONE TIME. Revisions will be due one week after you receive the marked essay. If you choose to revise an essay, be sure that you actually revise it, don't just edit it. Revision requires re-thinking, re-organizing, and re-working your ideas, not changing your topic. When submitting a revision, you must attach the original, marked essay with it. The grade for the essay will be the higher of the two grades. Revisions lacking the original, marked version will NOT be accepted. Period.

Plagiarism: "Plagiarism" is the use of any material, words, sentences, phrases, ideas, etc. of an author without giving due credit. I take plagiarism very seriously. Violators of any form of academic honesty will be dealt with by following the guidelines listed in the "Academic Dishonesty" section of the GPRC 2009-10 Calendar. Do your OWN work!

Grading Scale: This scale is largely based on GPRC Grading Policy Guidelines. For four-point scale equivalents, see GPRC 2009-10 Calendar. Refer also to "Essay Grading Rubric" for essay grading guidelines (posted on Blackboard).
