

DEPARTMENT OF ARTS AND EDUCATION

COURSE OUTLINE – WINTER 2013

EN 1201 - COMPOSITION AND RHETORIC – 3 (3-0-0) 45 HOURS

Tuesdays and Thursdays, 8:30-9:50

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. Anna Lapointe

PHONE: 780-539-2992

OFFICE: C420

E-MAIL: alapointe@gprc.ab.ca

OFFICE HOURS: Monday 1:30-3pm & Friday 12:30-2pm, or by appointment

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE:

Successful completion of Alberta English 30 (or equivalent of grade 12 English). This course will fulfill 3 credits of requirements for most programs that specify 6 credits of first year or Junior English. Normally, no more than 6 credits of first year English or equivalent may be taken for credit.

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

- William E. Messenger et al. The Canadian Writer's Handbook: Essentials Edition. Oxford University Press (2012). (This is a small, coil-bound book. The larger edition (not listed as "Essentials") is much more expensive. Don't buy it by mistake!)

Readings for this course will be posted on Moodle in .pdf format. Students should ensure they can access/read these files well in advance of the class for which the readings are required.

There is no charge for Moodle-based readings.

NON-REQUIRED RESOURCES WHICH YOU MAY FIND HELPFUL (AND AMUSING):

- The Canadian Oxford Dictionary (Canadian spelling is standard in Canada. I recommend the hardcover edition, both for durability and expanded -- and delightful! -- content.)
- Gordon, Karen Elizabeth. The Deluxe Transitive Vampire: The Ultimate Handbook of Grammar for the Innocent, the Eager, and the Doomed. New York: Parthenon Books, 1993. (For those of you seeking alternative illustrations of grammatical principles, this is an excellent and amusing text.)
- Truss, Lynne. Eats, Shoots & Leaves: The Zero-Tolerance Approach to Punctuation. New York: Gotham Books, 2004. (This book answers all “why” questions regarding punctuation. It also reveals why your instructor has been known to correct restaurant menus and supermarket signs.)

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

This course will help students become more sophisticated users and producers of written texts. Instruction will include basic academic essay writing skills and the various rhetorical approaches used when addressing specific audiences. The main goals of the course are to help students integrate reading and writing and to become familiar with the conventions of college- (and university-) level writing. This includes producing coherent, logical texts that are relatively free of surface errors. To achieve these goals, the course encourages students to think critically, to read closely and analytically, and to compose responses to a variety of texts, both written and visual.

STUDENT PRINTING POLICY:

It is the responsibility of each academic department to ensure that their students are not required to print more than the amount provided by this policy. If the requirements of the program are such that additional printing cannot be avoided, it is the responsibility of the department to ensure that their students are aware of this policy, and that additional charges for printing should be expected.

Be aware: because the readings for this course are posted on Moodle, if you choose to print them out, you will exceed the amount provided by this policy. Printing readings out is not required.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Requirements for Essays:

All essay-assignments in this course must be written in academic essay format, which we will study throughout the course. Spelling and grammar, structure, and comprehension and analysis of the course material are key grading elements. Expectations for the quality of writing will rise in the course of the term.

Formatting expectations are posted on Moodle, and will be distributed as a handout. All essays must be typed, double-spaced, and stapled together. Assignments not meeting these criteria will not be accepted.

2. Attendance and Participation

Attendance and participation are crucial to this course. More than two unexcused absences in the course of the term will result in a serious deduction from your participation grade.

Hit by a bus? That's a different matter. But let me know about it.

That said, simply showing up is not enough. You are expected to comment, respond to questions, interact with classmates, and otherwise contribute to the class dialogue. Questions are welcomed and encouraged. If you're wondering about something, most likely several classmates are as well, only they're afraid to speak up. So ask!

Students are responsible for all missed material, including material missed due to legitimate/excused absences. Do not ask me to “just quickly tell me what we covered.” If I could sum up a lecture in 5 minutes, I promise you I wouldn’t take 80 minutes to deliver it. All handouts will be posted on Moodle.

Take a moment early in the class to find a “note buddy” who is willing to share notes with you in the event of your absence. Take a moment to be a note buddy as well!

3. Late Assignments

Assignments are due in class, and on paper. No paper may be submitted by e-mail. Papers submitted outside of class will be considered late. Late papers may be left in the mailbox on my office door (C420). It is the student's responsibility to confirm I have received assignments left on my door.

Late papers are penalized at the rate of one third of a letter grade every two days (ie. Submitting two days late reduces a grade from a B+ to a B, or from a B to a B-). Weekends count as one day. If your paper is extremely late, come talk to me; I may take pity and cap the deducted marks.

I grant extensions for the following reasons: computer failure (may be used only once), sick children/family crisis, illness or injury of student (with doctor’s note), alien abduction (documentation required). Extensions are not open-ended; rather, we will agree on a new deadline, after which late penalties apply. The time to let me know you will need an extension is before the assignment is due.

4. Moodle

Students are responsible for checking Moodle regularly for updates, announcements, and handouts. Ensure you check Moodle each morning before coming to class.

All handouts are posted on Moodle after they have been distributed in class. If you miss a class or lose a handout, go online to access it.

The majority of readings for this course are also posted on Moodle in .pdf format. This has been done to save you (the student) money. Ensure you can access and read these files well in advance of the class in which we take up each one.

If you have trouble accessing Moodle, contact the technical support office immediately. Students are responsible for ensuring they have access to the course material.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Academic dishonesty includes plagiarism, submission of work in one course which has already been submitted in another, failure to cite sources, attempts to communicate with other students during exams, impersonating another student, and purchasing papers online. (This is not a complete list. See the GPRC Academic Calendar pp. 48-49 for details and a list of penalties.*)

Academic dishonesty devalues your education and the education of your classmates. It is disrespectful of the institution and (particularly) of your instructor. I take this issue personally, and very seriously.

Never fear: you will be specifically instructed on how to avoid “accidental” dishonesty. And when in doubt, cite!
