Course Description:

This course concentrates on the construction of sentences and paragraphs appropriate for formal academic research essays. Written assignments offer reviews of the conventions of formal English grammar and the mechanics of good writing and editing. There will be discussions and analyses of readings. Students will write a minimum of twelve in-class compositions. In addition, research documentation will be provided.

Objectives:

The objective of formal compositions is to increase the student's abilities to develop and support a thesis for a particular audience. Students will organize sentences and paragraphs to achieve unity and coherence. The course will stress the need to create a clear and concise thesis statement. Students will also be assisted in developing a writing style appropriate for specific contexts.

Required Texts: Quick Access Reference for Writers (text and exercise booklet)

Optional Texts: English & Grammar Punctuation Guide

English Composition 1201

Class Participation:

The class participation grade is determined by evaluating a student's contribution to the classroom learning environment.

Basic Expectations and Class Rules:

- 1) Attend all classes. Come prepared with assignments and readings completed. Be prepared to participate actively in your learning.
- 2) Essays may not be accepted after the due date unless prior arrangements have been made or compelling circumstances are demonstrated.
- 3) Essays will lose marks if they are significantly less or more than the required word length.
- 4) Students are required to make two copies of each of the three out-of-class essays.
- 5) Each student is responsible for any changes to this syllabus which may be announced when the student is not in class.
- 6) Please see the College Policy on "Plagiarism" under Student Conduct pg. 40. Plagiarism is never allowed. Plagiarism includes representing the ideas or words of another person as your own without proper acknowledgment and extends to the work of other students, the Internet, books, magazines, journals, TV shows, films, etc. This would not only include direct copying without citing the source, but paraphrasing as well.
