STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- 1. Laptops and other electronic devices, including cellular phones, MUST be turned off during class.
- 2. Work submitted for evaluation must be typed and double-spaced.
- 3. All work must be submitted personally to me. It is the student's responsibility to retain a photocopy or computer back-up copy of ALL assignments submitted for grading; in the event of loss or theft, a duplicate copy is required.
- 4. Late assignments will not be accepted unless arrangements for late submissions have been made with me at least two days prior to the date on which the assignment is due.
- 5. Attendance: You are expected to attend all classes and are responsible for obtaining information given in classes you miss. I am not able to keep track of who did not receive handouts so be responsible for yourself.
- 6. Moodle: Students are expected to check the Moodle site for this course before each meeting to stay apprised of course updates, announcements, etc.

7. Email messages: Feel free to send me email messages regarding course related matters. Because of the large number of emails I receive daily, please allow approx. 48 hours for a reply, and please follow these requirements:

- Please include your name, course, and section number in the message, as this is not always clear from your email address.
- Remember that your communications with me are occurring in an academic environment. Messages can be written informally—but do pay attention to correct grammar and spelling (especially since you are corresponding with an English professor!)

8. Email attachments: Should you need to send me an assignment as an attachment, please follow these requirements:

- I can only open attachments if these are sent as a Word document (.doc or .docx) or in Rich Text Format (.rtf).
- I will only open attachments if these are accompanied by a note from you in the email message indicating the name of the assignment, its length, and its formatting. I will not open attachments simply sent without a note from you.
- I will always inform you upon successful receipt of an attachment.

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Please refer to pages 49-50 of the College calendar regarding plagiarism, cheating, and the resultant penalties. These are serious issues and will be dealt with severely.
