LEVEL
OF COURSE: French 0110 is a beginners French course carrying 3 college credits - but NOT university credits.
It may be considered the equivalent of French 10 on the three-year high school French program. Students completing French 0110 are prepared to enter French 0120. Students who have not taken French 30 in high school may then receive 6 university transfer credits by completing French 0120/0130.

TEXT: Rendez-vous AN INVITATION TO FRENCH (Third Edition) is the text. This text will probably be used in French 0120 and 0130. The "cahier" or workbook as well as the lab manual will be used. You will require a good quality cassette tape.

ATTENDANCE AND ASSIGNMENTS: As new language structures are going to be introduced continually, class attendance is deemed essential.
If more than 20% of classes are missed then the student will be barred from the final exam.
Assignments(including workbook) and oral presentations(including the lab manual) are expected to be done on time. A 5% penalty per day will be applied after due dates.

EXAMINATIONS: Besides 5 quizzes, two major exams will be given which test both written and oral skills: a mid-term and a final exam. The MID-TERM exam is worth 20% of the final grade (10% for oral, and 10% for written).
The tentative schedule for the mid-term is: Feb.19.
The written section of the FINAL exam is worth 15%
and it will be scheduled by the Registrar's Office.
The oral section of the FINAL exam is worth 15% and it will be scheduled between April 16-22.
