Course Description:

First year University French provides for continuing growth toward proficiency in each of the four language skills areas: listening, speaking, reading and writing. Class time is devoted to oral and written work in theoretical and applied grammar, reading and discussion.

As the approach taken in this course is, to a significant degree, communicative, oral and written assignments and in-class activities provide opportunities for both free and controlled expression. Classes will be conducted in French as much as possible, but not to the point of compromising understanding,

The Ensuite program provides opportunities for you to become more familiar with basic French structures (such as verb tenses, adjectives, pronouns, etc.) and more at ease in carrying out tasks using these forms (such as asking and answering questions, describing and narrating in past, present and future time frames, dealing with common life situations, expressing opinions, and hypothesizing). The readings and accompanying exercises provide additional skill-building opportunities and introduce you to aspects of French culture and civilization.

All classes are held in E302. This facility doubles as a classroom and language laboratory. Its multipurpose design allows us to vary our activities during any given period. However, essentially three hours per week (the Wednesday and Friday classes) will centre on the grammar and communicative activities while the 2 hours lab will be devoted to the readings and to completion of lab (tapes and manual) and workbook exercises. Bear in mind that the scheduled lab times may not provide sufficient opportunity for you to practice; you will probably need to spend additional personal time in the laboratory or at home on these materials.

Attendance at labs is just as important as attendance at the Wednesday and Friday classes and it has proved to be a big factor in student success in language learning. Your attendance will be checked and noted.

Assignments:

In French 1500, the emphasis will be on many assignments rather than a few major ones.

Most exercises in the textbook and workbook are to be completed; the workbook is to be handed in after each chapter.

You will be required to complete 14 of the 18 "compositions" which occur at the ends of the Ensuite chapters. All are to be written and handed in (150-200 words) and four of them are to be presented orally in front of the class. Strict adherence to due dates will be required.

Extra-Curricular Activities:

Language acquisition depends on contact with and use of the language. You are, therefore, urged to avail yourself of every possible opportunity to listen, to speak and read French. Here are some suggestions:

- 1) Speak French at all times in French class and with fellow French students and French-speaking staff.
- 2) Find (a) classmate(s) to work with on a regular basis in completing assignments and preparing for exams.
- 3) Watch French television and videos.
- 4) Listen to French radio.
- 5) Read French newspapers, magazines and other materials available in the Library; i.e. Paris Match, L'Actualité and available on the Internet.
- 6) Paris in the spring? Provided there is enough interest, FR2330 (3 credits) will be offered on location in Paris.

Attendance and Participation:

This course stresses oral/aural skills as well as structures and vocabulary most readily acquired in a communication context. Thus your habits related to punctuality, attendance and participation in class will undoubtedly manifest themselves in your grades.
