Calendar Description:

Students will become familiar with the basic linguistic differences and principles of translation between English and French. Through the acquisition of theoretical concepts, notions of contrastive linguistics, analysis and regular translations exercises, students will learn to transfer texts from French into English and from English into French. The course will be taught in French.

Credit/Contact Hours: FR 2540 is worth 3 university transfer credits and consists of 3 hours of instructional time each week.

Delivery Mode (s):

Students will acquire knowledge of theoretical concepts and notions through lecture, individual and group work, and practice on regular translation French to English and English to French exercises. Some assignments may be related to the Internet. The course will be taught in French.

Objectives:

The primary focus is on the understanding of basic linguistic differences and principles of translation. Students will be able to recognize linguistic differences, analyze and apply basic principles of translation when transferring texts from French into English and English to French with a variety of texts.

Transferability:

UT (University transfer) to UA, UC, UL, AU, AF, GMU

Students are cautioned to confirm credit and transferability with the receiving institution.

*Grade of D or D+ may not be acceptable for transfer to other post-secondary institutions.

Student Responsibilities:

Attendance and Participation:

1. Regular attendance to classes is vital. Your attendance, punctuality, and active participation will not only contribute to your learning success but will create an effective interactive learning environment for all. *IMPORTANT: Participation and attendance is worth 10%. Students are permitted 1 absence with penalty. Thereafter, students will lose 2% for each absence to a maximum of 10%. In case of an unavoidable absence, notify the instructor. Students are responsible to cover all work missed.
2. Students have the responsibility to know what material has been covered and assigned for the next class. In the case of unavoidable absence, please notify the instructor.
3. Assignments are due on the due date at the beginning of class unless prior arrangements have been made with the professor. Unless otherwise specified, assignments must be: titled, dated, with name, double-spaced and typed.
4. Quizzes cannot be made up, but in the case of a verifiable medical emergency with an official doctor's note, may be excused.
5. Respect – Out of courtesy and respect for all class members, students may only access cell phones outside of class time.

Evaluation:

Regular self and instructor administrated evaluation is the key to progress and achieving goals. When a form of testing and / or any other evaluation has been scheduled, any student who misses class on this day and does not have a valid excuse will receive a zero, even though s/he might have been absent the day it was announced. Testing is varied.
