PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: None

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

J.L. Granatstein and N. Hillmer, Empire to Umpire: Canada and the World to the 21st Century, 2nd Edition.

Other reading materials will be made available as necessary on Moodle. A schedule of readings and related quizzes will be posted on Moodle.

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

In general, this course examines Canada's diplomatic, political and cultural interrelationship with its two great mentors - Great Britain and the United States. More specifically, discussions will focus on the development of Canadian foreign policy (from Laurier to Mulroney) with particular emphasis on Canada's middle power role in global affairs during the Cold War period. Notes: Some background in Canadian history is recommended.

CREDIT/CONTACT HOURS:

HI 4550 consists of three hours of lecture and discussion each week.

DELIVERY MODE(S):

The course work includes lectures, discussions, research and writing assignments as well as two short tests and a final exam.

OBJECTIVES (OPTIONAL):

The primary objectives of HI4550 are:

- To present students with an overview of Canada's role in the world since 1867.
- To develop and enhance historical research and synthesis skills as well as composition skills.

TRANSFERABILITY:

* Grade of D or D+ may not be acceptable for transfer to other post-secondary institutions. Students are cautioned that it is their responsibility to contact the receiving institutions to ensure transferability

This course has university transferability to the University of Alberta, University of Calgary, University of Lethbridge, Athabasca University, Concordia University College of Alberta, Grant MacEwan University and King's University College. For complete information consult the Alberta Transfer Guide (www.transferralberta.ca).

All assignments must follow the requirements laid out in the course assignment file.

All assignments must be original work for this course. Work previously submitted for other courses will not be accepted in this course. Students found to have submitted previous work will receive a 0% for the assignment.

All assignments must be word-processed. It is particularly important to save a copy of any written work handed in for credit or grading.

All assignments will be submitted electronically via Moodle. This procedure will be demonstrated in class.

All assignments are to be submitted before midnight on the due date. Students will have a three calendar day grace period to submit work after the due date. Work submitted after the three day grace period but before ten days after the due date will be penalized 25%. Work submitted more than ten days after the grace period will not be accepted for grading and students will receive a 0% for the assignment. Extensions beyond the grace period will only be considered when students contact the instructor prior to the deadline and present evidence of extenuating circumstances.

Students will be assessed on their research, synthesis and writing in the course assignments. The presentation of information in terms of organization and writing will be given equal weight in grading to the research and analysis.

There will be two tests scheduled during class and a final exam written during the exam period in December.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Students are expected to commit the required time to complete this course. Requests to reschedule assignments or exams are extraordinary and will only be granted under such circumstances.
- Students who are unable to write the tests on the scheduled date should advise the instructor as soon as possible either by e-mail or office telephone. Makeup tests will only be granted under extenuating circumstances.
- Submitting assigned work on the dates set by the instructor. The essay proposal is not to be graded, but must be submitted as essay topics require approval.
- Regular attendance is important to success in HI2600. The lectures contain important information and interpretations for exams and instructions and examples for essays.
- Participation in course discussions is important and 5% of your final grade is based on your contributions to these classroom discussions.
