TEXT:

Smyth, Soberman & Easson. The Law and Business

Administration in Canada, 7th Edition, Scarborough; Prentice-Hall

(1995).

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a broad survey course meant to provide an overview of legal principles relevant to the business world. Some of the main areas touched upon include: constitutional law, tort law, forms of business organization, contracts, employment law, insurance and land law.

COURSE FORMAT

The learning process in this course is based on lectures and interactive discussion of the textbook and the occasional video. Guest lecturers with expertise in particular areas may also be used.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- To introduce the student to basic legal concepts.
- To familiarize the student with specific areas in which law impacts business.

GRADING

Grande Prairie Regional College uses the following nine-point grading scale:

90-100%	9
80-89	8
72-79	7
65-71	6
57-64	5
50-56	4
45-49	3
26-44	2
0-25	1

Every effort will be made to ensure that the final grade you receive reflects your effort and achievement as accurately as possible.

Chapter Exams (3 @ 20%)	60%
Final Exam	30%
Attendance, effort and participation	10%

In addition, you may be expected to complete various reading and writing assignments outside of class time. (e.g. chapter-end questions for discussion) Pop quizzes may be used to give feedback on your comprehension and retention. Quiz scores may be factored into the participation component of your final grade.

Re: Exams

You will be tested on your understanding of and ability to apply the concepts presented in class and in the readings. Textbook material and anything discussed in class, presented by guest speakers, videos or distributed in handouts is fair game for exams. Chapter exams will typically cover eight chapters. The final exam will NOT cover material from the start of the course. More detail on the exams will be provided as the term progresses.

Re: Participation

The participation grade is based on attendance and both the quantity and quality of inclass participation. You should expect to be called upon to answer questions during class. You may be asked for informal exercises or assignments to be handed in on a random basis. As well, you are responsible for obtaining any notes or handouts you may have missed due to an absence.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST

- * classes start promptly
- * enter into discussions and exercises
- · avoid private conversations when someone else has the floor
- * ask questions to make sure you understand
