DELIVERY MODE(S): Lecture

COURSE OBJECTIVES: MU1021 is an introduction to a number of North American popular music styles. This course focuses on popular music from the late nineteenth century to the present day, with an emphasis on the evolution of the various musical styles and the placement of these styles in their social contexts. Both assigned readings and critical listening are important aspects of the course, and exams and quizzes will reflect material from readings and recordings. In addition to the required text, additional readings may occasionally be assigned. When you have completed this course, you should have a good perspective of the history and evolution of popular music in North America over the past century.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the ways popular music has developed and the people and forces who drove those developments. Additionally, students will be able to aurally identify the aesthetic and stylistic characteristics of many genres of popular music.

TRANSFERABILITY: UA, UC, UL, AU, AF*, CU, KUC, GMU
