Course Description: Private instruction in piano.

The Course in Perspective: The goal of applied piano instruction is to expand the musical capabilities of each student, so that they can be challenged to become a technically proficient and competent musician. Course content will include the study and performance of various musical styles, sight-reading, ear training and technique. A master class will be held weekly to give the students an opportunity to perform and discuss topics pertaining to piano performance. Students are strongly urged to participate in noon hour concerts and master classes and a high level of performance standard is expected in this course. A brief jury for the faculty of the department is required at the end of each semester following the last day of classes.

Grading: 70% performance and preparation for weekly lessons
(35% per semester)
30% jury performance
(15% per semester)

Course Materials: original copies of the repertoire chosen is required
