Course Description: Private instruction in piano.

Prerequisite: Consent of the department or audition

The Course in Perspective: The goal of applied piano instruction is to expand the musical capabilities of each student, so that proficiency can be achieved both technically and musically. The content of the course will include the study and performance of various musical styles and technique primarily, as well as sight-reading and ear training. Master classes will be conducted to give the students an opportunity to perform and discuss topics pertaining to piano performance. Students are strongly urged to participate in student concerts and master classes. A brief jury, which includes technique and repertoire pieces of a minimum of two contrasting styles, is held for the faculty of the department at the end of each semester following the last day of classes.

Grading: 70% performance and preparation for weekly lessons
(35% per semester)
30% jury performance
(15% per semester)

Course Materials: original copies of the repertoire chosen is required
Type II cassette tape to record lessons or performances
