CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: Private study of voice or your principal instrument. Bachelor of Music students may use this course as a means of preparing to complete their Piano Proficiency Exam. This is a two-term course offered over fall/winter terms. It is identifiable in the Schedule of Courses (Timetable) with a Part A and a Part B. Students must register in both the Part A and the Part B of all types of sections offered (sections, labs, seminars, etc.) for this course.

PREREQUISITE(S)/COREQUISITE: Consent of the Department.

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS: You will be required to purchase appropriate repertoire books as recommended by your Instructor.

DELIVERY MODE(S): Studio Lesson, Master class/Ensemble; Moodle assisted.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: The piano lesson is one-half hour per week. Students are welcomed to attend master class. This component of the course will enable all students to perform, experience other student performances and explore various aspects of keyboard literature and performance.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Learning outcomes will vary based on the student's experience and musicianship level upon admittance to MU2220. The course strategies will be individualized to promote student success in many areas. By the end of this course, students will have the ability to:

- Strengthen and improve their piano technique
- Produce pianistic lyrical tone color
- Obtain strategies for effective practice and goal setting
- Differentiate musical styles of keyboard repertoire as well as the ramifications for phrasing, articulation, rubato and pedaling

- Analyze methods of memorization and sight-reading
- Perform piano repertoire in a variety of settings from lesson, master class and recital situations
- Experience live performance of solo piano as well as two piano, duet or concerto repertoire

EVALUATIONS:

Ongoing Evaluation in weekly lessons	50%
Attendance and participation in lessons	5%
December Jury	15%
April jury	30%

It is expected that to pass this course, a student will be doing an hour of formal practice per day. As the student progresses, one or more hours per day will undoubtedly enhance a better mark at the end of the year. If a student is insufficiently prepared for a lesson, the instructor reserves the right to suspend the lesson.

The December and April juries will consist of a performance of a minimum of two styles of music at the junior level and one significant piece at the grade level of intermediate and senior students. Students will also display their proficiency at their technical exercises at the jury.

Master classes will be held on Tuesdays 1:00-2:00 p.m. in the Collins Recital Hall (L106). Attendance for MU 2220 is voluntary, and no additional marks will be given for attendance. Students in second study are welcomed and encouraged to attend the master class to expand their knowledge of piano repertoire and gain experience in performing that will benefit your April jury.

Students are required to attend 10 professional Fine Arts Department events over the course of the year for their principal instrument MU 2250. Concerts held at the college, Visitor In The Arts and student performances that you are not performing in will qualify. Attendance at the Visitor in the Arts Music lectures is mandatory. Some community events will be accepted however, check with your Instructor in advance of the performance for approval. Attendance at ten events will be worth 5% of your final mark. You will be required to sign an attendance sheet at each event or provide ticket stubs for community events. Documentation for Visitor in the Arts at the end of the Winter term should be given to your Instructor in your principal instrument.

GRADING CRITERIA:

Please note that most universities will not accept your course for transfer credit IF your grade is less than a C-.
