CALENDAR DESCRIPTION: Private study of voice or your principal instrument. Bachelor of Music students may use this course as a means of preparing to complete their Piano Proficiency Exam. This is a two-term course offered over fall/winter terms. It is identifiable in the Schedule of Courses (Timetable) with a Part A and a Part B. Students must register in both the Part A and the Part B of all types of sections offered (sections, labs, seminars, etc.) for this course.

PREREQUISITE/COREQUISITE(S): Consent of the Department

REQUIRED TEXT/RESOURCE MATERIALS:

Students will be required to purchase appropriate repertoire throughout the year. Please bring a pencil(s), eraser, water, and studio notebook to all scheduled classes.

DELIVERY MODE(S): Studio Lesson

COURSE OBJECTIVES: This is the second study applied lesson for music majors and music major B.Ed student as well as for IDD program. This course will enable students with the building blocks of vocal technique. It is designed to give students the necessary skills, training, and practical performance experience to develop their voice and abilities. Students will have an opportunity to study repertoire from the Renaissance, Baroque, Romantic/Classical, and Contemporary periods ranging in styles and genres. Students will grow in their knowledge and technique of their instruments, learning how to adjust for different styles when applicable.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Upon completing this course, students will be able to:

- Understand the building blocks of vocal technique including topics like posture, breath support, and resonance
- Students will develop a basic understanding of vowel formation in singing and how to apply this in different languages for singing, and in different styles and genres when applicable
- Students will develop an individual practice plan that works for their schedule and practice habits, with the help of the instructor
- Will grow in their understanding of pronunciation in the main sung languages: Italian, English, French and German
- Will grow in their ability to perform music artistically and sensitively and work with an accompanist

TRANSFERABILITY: UA, UC, UL, AU, AF, CU, CUC, KUC

Warning: Although we strive to make the transferability information in this document up-to-date and accurate, the student has the final responsibility for ensuring the transferability of this course to Alberta Colleges and Universities. Please consult the Alberta Transfer Guide for more information. Please notify the Professor by email if you are unable to attend the class, a doctor’s note may be requested. Please review the GPRC policies pertaining to academics and student responsibilities.

Studio policy applicable to all students:

1. Come warmed up for all classes. Be sure you have sung earlier in the day.
2. Be on time for all lessons and masterclasses.
3. Hydrate, and do your best to live a healthy lifestyle as this will help your instrument.
4. Learn your notes, words, and rhythms outside of the lesson time.
5. Students will practice 3-4 hours weekly at a minimum.
6. Aim to memorize your music promptly. Ask the instructor for help with this if needed.
7. Students are expected to work with the studio accompanist outside of lesson, masterclass, and recital times. These sessions will be at the expense of the student.
8. Participation in Masterclasses is mandatory for all Applied students every 2-3 weeks, as scheduled. Students will be memorized and prepared for these classes.

9. Students will give the instructor (or accompanist if meeting for a rehearsal) as much notice as possible if they are unable to attend a class for any reason.
