CONCENTRATION VOICE

1 COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is the study of the production, care, and development of the voice as an instrument. The course is given in a studio setting on an individual basis. It includes participation in the College Chorus and the Class Voice course.

2. COURSE IN PERSPECTIVE: The purpose of this course is to provide students with the necessary skills and training to develop their vocal instruments. Students will develop their ability to perform selected repertoire from a wide range of material in a stylistic manner in solo and ensemble settings.

Topics to be covered include:

Breathing for singers
Resonance and diction
Improving tone quality

3. ASSIGNMENTS: It is expected that each student will practice at least 45 minutes daily.

4. EVALUATION: Students who have completed this course will be expected to know and demonstrate an understanding of the basics of good vocal production. They will have acquired the skill of favourably performing vocal exercises which evinces this ability.
