STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

The assigned readings and exercises for each class should be completed before attending that class, except for the first class. Attendance at all sessions is required and is critical to the student's success in the course. If you find yourself having difficulty in this course, please contact the instructor immediately for assistance. If you simply want more discussion with the instructor about any aspect of the course, please visit my office during office hours or at a more convenient pre-arranged time.

It is expected that all students will display a professional attitude and behavior in the classroom. This includes reliability, respect for and cooperation with your fellow students and the instructor, attention to fellow student questions and instructor's response, determination to achieve first-class work while meeting deadlines, and constructive response to criticism.

Also, please ensure that you are familiar with using Moodle:

GPRC Moodle go to: <https://moodle.gprc.ab.ca/my/>

STATEMENT ON PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and there will be penalties. For a more precise definition of plagiarism and its consequences, refer to the Student Conduct section of the College Calendar at <http://www.gprc.ab.ca/programs/calendar/> or the College Policy on Student Misconduct: Plagiarism and Cheating at <https://www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies>

Instructors reserve the right to use electronic plagiarism detection services on written assignments.

Instructors also reserve the right to ban the use of any form of electronics (cell phones, Blackberries, iPods, tablets, scanning pens, electronic dictionaries, etc.) during class and during exams.

**Note: all Academic and Administrative policies are available on the same page.

Additional Information

1. For those in the Grande Prairie area you are encouraged to participate in GPRC On-Campus Friendship Center and GP Friendship Center events and ceremonies that also happen outside of our scheduled activities. As these are made known to me I will give you information in class and post in our NT 1000 Moodle site.
2. The nature and topics of your assignments will be discussed.

3. It is your responsibility to read each and every chapter and assigned reading (if any) and attend all required face to face/land-based learning course components.
4. Video sources may cover topics and include materials that are not covered by your readings. It is therefore imperative that you review all readings and videos and engage in all required course activities.
5. It is expected that students will display a professional attitude and behavior. Any violation or misconduct may result in dismissal from the class. Furthermore, this course includes participating in Indigenous learning events and possible ceremonies. If at any time you are uncertain, need more information, please do not hesitate to connect with me in person or schedule a time over the phone. Discuss the various options to demonstrate learning for the class assignments with me if you are uncertain.
6. Talk to me if you have concerns or you are experiencing difficulties that may have negative impact on your academic performance.
