Course Policy

- Attendance is required and will be taken at each class. If you are ill, please call your instructor. More than 3 missed classes is considered excessive absences and may result in a recommendation of "Debarred from Exam." (See College calendar, p. 35)
- In-class tests, mid-terms, and final exams must be completed at the scheduled times. Alternate or individualized examination times will not be considered. Failure to complete examinations at the scheduled times will result in a grade of zero (0).
- Get to know some of your classmates. If you miss a class, have a classmate call you with your assignments. You are responsible for any work missed and assignments are still due, even if you have been away. All assignments must be completed before attempting final projects or exams.
- Assignments are due on the dates set by the instructor. These dates are non-negotiable.
- If you miss an in-class test or homework assignment, you receive a zero (0) for that assignment. Some of these assignments or quizzes may be unannounced before that date. This policy may change from course to course.
- Plagiarism will not be tolerated. Read page 39 in your Calendar.
- All assignments, in-class work, quizzes and exams must be completed throughout the semester in order to complete a course. Attempting missed assignments and tests at the end of the course will not be considered.

Keep your work up-to-date. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to contact your study partner to find out what work you missed.
