

GRANDE PRAIRIE REGIONAL COLLEGE
Industrial Training

Power Engineering Program

COURSE SYLLABUS - SEMESTER II

---

WORK EXPERIENCE: PN 1900

This course will give students an opportunity to experience a hands-on approach to actual procedures in the maintenance trade.

Prerequisites: PN 1055, PN 1405, PN 1000, PN 1550

Textbooks: None

Class Hours: Workplace Hours, One Month or 160 Hours (minimum)

Course Objectives

Upon the successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. experience a hands-on approach to being a Power Engineer and Operator.
2. understand employer expectations in regards to punctuality, work expected, and work ethics.
3. Experience shift work and individual initiative.

Evaluation

1. Students will be evaluated by the employer of the work experience placement, in addition to the instructor in the course.
2. Work experience assignments will be evaluated.