Professionalism

- Attendance - Students will be responsible for content covered, assigned readings, and for any announcements that will be made in class. If a student is unable to attend a particular class, it will be her/his responsibility to find out what was missed. For optimal learning and readiness for class participation, students are advised to attend class regularly (no less than 80% attendance) and should read the assigned chapter and articles before coming to class on the dates indicated on the class schedule.
- Assignments - All assignments must be typed and follow APA guidelines. Computers are available for your use in the following rooms: A301, A305, A307, A312, A313 (times are posted on the lab doors) and the library and media services. Assignments will be marked according to the attached marking guide. You may use first person but it must be written in past tense.

The Writing Center room # C311A offers assistance on written assignments. Students are encouraged to use this resource.
Copies of former students' exceptional assignments will be placed on reserve in the library for your assistance.
- Late Policy - Assignments must be submitted by 4:00 p.m. ON or BEFORE the date they are due. Late assignments will be penalized at a rate of 5% per day. For example an assignment graded at 75% would be credited 70% after one day late, 65% after two days, etc.
- Extensions - We all have responsibilities in addition to our academic commitments. Occasionally these responsibilities make it very difficult to meet specific deadlines. The instructor will consider requests for extensions without penalty ONLY if the student makes his/her needs known PRIOR (3 days) to the due date.
- Resubmission - Students who have achieved less than 57% and wish to improve their grade may rewrite an assignment. One resubmission per assignment is allowed. The maximum grade on resubmitted assignment is 80%.

(Note: The first assignment must be handed in with your resubmission. Late assignments are not considered for resubmission)

6. Student Conduct – Please familiarize yourself with pages 36 to 40 of the Grande Prairie Regional College 2001-2002 Calendar.

- (f) If you were permanently confined to a wheelchair what changes would you have to make in: your home? your lifestyle?

- (g) How your experience affected your perception of people who have physical disabilities?

Reflection Paper

Becoming aware of your values that frame how you think and act can be a very challenging but useful exercise. In order to be successful and most beneficial to the individuals that you will be working with, it is imperative that you constantly reflect upon your thoughts and actions. In this program you will be exposed to some new concepts and values that may be different from your own. In this assignment you will reflect upon some of the concepts you are learning, as well as, create an awareness of the process of one's value development.

Identify three concepts (e.g. mercy killing, institutionalization, inclusive education) you have found to be significant and complete the following sentences:

- I have learned that I . . .
- I realize that I . . .
- I never knew that I . . .
- I now know that I . . .
- I have discovered that I . . .
- I have relearned that I . . .
- I still need to explore . . .

To aid you in this assignment you may want to keep the attached page in your binder where you can record some of your thoughts and feelings during the class.

"Is this your first blind date?"
