COURSE DESCRIPTION

The first portion of this course is a two and one half day orientation to the Rehabilitation Services Program. It is designed to provide a general overview to the field of Rehabilitation as well as to assist the student to develop effective study skills.

The second portion of the integration seminar provides a forum for students to resolve issues and explore areas related to their studies and their practicum experiences.

CLASS FORMAT

Classes will be conducted in seminar style, requiring students' active participation in discussions. Student involvement is crucial to the success of your integration seminar. Student led discussions and presentations will be incorporated.

Student agendas are posted on your instructor's office door. Students are encouraged to place on the agenda any items they wish dealt with during the seminar. Instructors will allocate class time to the discussion of ongoing issues identified by students and placed on the agenda.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Students will become familiar with the Rehabilitation Services Program and the field of rehabilitation.
2. Students will become familiar with basic study skills.
3. Students will express their points of view, feelings, and concerns regarding courses and issues in the field of (re)habilitation.
4. Students will present an overview of their practicum setting.
