COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to familiarize students with agencies and services available to people with handicapping conditions in the Grande Prairie region. Guest speakers will visit the classroom to talk about their agencies and experiences. Where possible, fieldtrips will be arranged.

One class each month will be devoted to discussion about the presentations/fieldtrips. This will provide students with the opportunity to apply concepts from other courses (especially RP1100) to the what they learn from presenters.

Students are also required to complete 30 hours of volunteer work related to the field. (If you have previous work or volunteer experience, this requirement may be waived. See the instructor if you think this might apply to you.)

CLASS FORMAT

Guest speakers/panels, field trips, and discussions will take up the majority of class time.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will:

1. become familiar with the nature and scope of agency services.
2. gain awareness of how community agencies strive to address the needs of people who have handicapping conditions.
3. gain awareness of the role of rehabilitation practitioners in various agencies.
4. apply material covered in theory courses to the practice of (re)habilitation as described by presenters and observed on fieldtrips.
5. recognize practices that promote dignity and enhance the image of people served.
6. interact with people served by an agency.
7. interact with employees of an agency.

GRADING

This course is graded as credit or no-credit.
