

ACADEMIC UPGRADING DEPARTMENT
ADULT BASIC EDUCATION

F-94

COURSE OUTLINE

COURSE TITLE: Introduction to General Science (SC0095)

INSTRUCTOR: Bill Shaw
Office # C207
Telephone # 539-2713
Office Hours by Appointment

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is an overview to Life Science and Earth and Space Science designed to help students gain an understanding of the world around them.

OBJECTIVES:

This course should allow the student:

1. An opportunity to become more involved with the scientific method.
2. To strengthen vocabulary and reading skills in Science.
3. To apply practical solutions to theoretical problems.
4. To understand the characteristics of life.
5. To view the Earth changing crust.
6. To come to grips with present day issues in Science.

PRE-REQUISITE: Science 0080

REQUIRED TEXT: General Science, (Allyn & Bacon - Prentice Hall, Mann., 1989)

GRADING:

The final grade will be determined as follows:

Class Work & Assignments	25%
Mid-term	20%
Chapter Tests	25%
Final	30%

The instructor reserves the right to take into account attendance, attitude and work ethic into the final mark.