STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

(1) Tests (60 points) consist of multiple choice questions, true-and-false, and/or glossary terms/concepts (short answers) -- based on all lecture and text materials.

Note that there is no final exam. (2) Details on the written assignments (60 points) will be discussed early in the semester and deadline dates will be announced when the assignments are given. For these assignments, you have the option of working with a partner, and you will share the marks. (3) What the 'current events/media presentations' entail (10 points of your course grade) will be discussed in detail as classes get underway. For these presentations (current events; chapter questions) you will work with a class partner and share the marks. Other details and due dates will be announced both in class and on Moodle.

PLEASE NOTE:

☀️ A missed exam unfortunately cannot be accommodated - unless the situation is an unexpected personal or family emergency. No make-up exams unless it's an emergency.

Plagiarism detection software may be used in this course, and students may be required, individually or collectively, to submit key assignments/components in electronic form.

It is your responsibility to ensure that all your work is at a level appropriate to your year in college/university studies. Always spell- and grammar-check your work; always keep a hard copy or disk copy of your work as back-up. There is writing help on campus, and if in doubt you are always welcome to ask me, your instructor, for clarification. Poor spelling, grammar and organization interferes with the clear communication of ideas and you will lose marks if your over-all communication is ineffective.

Attendance at lectures is strongly encouraged; the same applies to your participation in class discussions. Be an active participant in your education!

Late assignments (or any applicable assignment/course components) will result in an automatic loss of 5 marks (of the value of the work) PER DAY, up to and including the day of a late submission, unless immediate or prior arrangements, based on exceptional circumstances, have been made. Documented personal or family emergencies, of course, will be accommodated.
