PLEASE NOTE:

A missed exam unfortunately cannot be accommodated unless the situation is an unexpected personal or family emergency. No make-up exams unless it's an emergency; documentation must then be provided.

Plagiarism detection software may be used in this course, and students may be required, individually or collectively, to submit key assignments/components in electronic form.

It is your responsibility to ensure that all your work is at a level appropriate to your year in college/university studies. Always spell- and grammar-check your work; always keep a hard copy or disk copy of your work as back-up. There is writing help on campus, and if in doubt you are always welcome to ask me, your instructor, for clarification. Poor spelling, bad grammar and lack of organization interfere with the clear communication of ideas and you will lose marks if your over-all communication is ineffective.

Attendance at lectures is strongly encouraged; the same applies to your participation in class discussions. Be an active participant in your education!

Late assignments or no-shows (on any applicable assignment/course component) will result in an automatic loss of 5 marks (of the value of the work) PER DAY, up to and including the day of a late submission (example: if an assignment is worth 20%, one late day makes it worth 15%, etc.), unless immediate or prior arrangements, based on exceptional circumstances, have been made. Documented personal or family emergencies, of course, will be accommodated.

Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and there will be penalties. For a more precise definition of plagiarism and its consequences, refer to the Student Conduct section of the College Calendar at <http://www.gprc.ab.ca/programs/calendar/> or the College Policy on Student Misconduct: Plagiarism and Cheating at <https://www.gprc.ab.ca/about/administration/policies>
