

WRITING LAB0110
COURSE OUTLINE

Instructor: Doreen Lakusta C405
Text: Skills Practice Book (Blue Level, Canadian Edition)
Supplies: One, three ring binder

COURSE
OBJECTIVES: Successful completion of this course should enable students:

1. to correctly identify and use basic parts of speech
2. to correctly identify and use basic parts of a sentence
3. to recognize and correct sentence fragments and run-ons
4. to use correct sentence mechanics
5. to correct basic grammar problems
6. to combine ideas into effective sentence patterns
7. to be diligent, conscientious and meticulous regarding proofreading and correcting written work

GRADING
FORMAT:

Class assignments	-	30%
Quizzes, Tests	-	35%	(Mid-term = 20%)
Final Exam	-	30%
Attendance, etc.	-	5%
		100%

ATTENDANCE: The class meets only two days per week and thus some of the work will necessarily be completed out of class time.

EN110, WL110, RE110 are complementary courses, and successful completion of all three components is required for a student to advance to the EN120 level.

