Instructor:	Geoffrey Whittall; L119; 539-2823; gwhittall@gprc.ab.ca; www.fad.gprc.ab.ca/~Geoff/
Calendar Description:	This is an introduction to ethnomusicology, the study of music in a cultural context. Case studies of music from several cultures and continents will be examined. The development of listening skills is an integral part of this course.
Course Content:	This course is an introduction to, and survey of, music and related culture from several continents around the world. This requires a basic knowledge of music theory and terminology, which will be covered briefly at the beginning of this course. The bulk of the course material will be a series of case studies from several continents. We will listen, often numerous times, to musical examples from these cultures as we try to become familiar with their unique features.
Evaluation:	Student grades will be assigned by the following weighting: <table border="0"> <tr> <td>Midterm examination (probably March 2)</td> <td>25%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Quizzes</td> <td>20%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Term paper</td> <td>25%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Final examination</td> <td>30%</td> </tr> </table> The term paper will be a formal paper based upon field research that you will perform by attending at least one cultural event of ethnomusicological significance. The paper will be a minimum of five pages in length (minimum 1250 words), and topics must be chosen in consultation with the instructor.		Midterm examination (probably March 2)	25%	Quizzes	20%	Term paper	25%	Final examination	30%
Midterm examination (probably March 2)	25%
Quizzes	20%
Term paper	25%
Final examination	30%
Timeline:	Papers must be typed, and are due on Thursday April 6, unless you negotiate an extension well in advance of that date. Extensions will only be given if the scheduling of a particularly attractive cultural event, central to your research, occurs close to or after April 6. You will receive at least 5 day's notice in advance of each unit quiz that we will write.
Required Materials:	Jeff Titon, ed. Worlds of Music, 4th ed. 2002 Set of CDs to accompany Worlds of Music.
Additional Costs:	None
Attendance:	More than 20% absenteeism may constitute a failure except for medical or extenuating circumstances in which case a doctor's letter may be required. If students fail to complete and submit 85% of the graded requirements of the term mark, they will not be allowed to write the final exam, or complete the course. In such a case, the student will automatically receive a failing grade of "F" on the final exam. You cannot pass this course without submitting the term paper. It is a Fine Arts Department guideline that students will lose 10% a calendar day for submitting projects after the due date. After ten days, a grade of zero (0%) will be recorded.
Plagiarism:	Plagiarism is cheating. The instructor reserves the right to use electronic plagiarism detection services. See P. 40-50 of the Calendar for more details, and for explanation of many other policies and regulations.
